LATE RETURNS.

November 6.—Returns indicate that the republicans have lost two seats in the House of Representatives. The most sensational defeat being that of William L. Foster, one of the most prominent members of the Cook county organization in the Second District of Cook county. The defeat of Foster is in doubt. The republican leaders assert that the delegation will remain united.

November 6.—Second district, Illinois. The total vote showed a majority of 846, hardly a quarant was four years ago.

RESULTS IN TEXAS.

Wells Says Two Hundred Thousand Majority.

San Antonio, Texas, November 6.—Hon. James B. Wells, chairman of the State democratic executive committee, gave out the following statement tonight at 11 o'clock: "The returns are coming in very slowly, but the indications are that the State will give a majority of about 200,000 for the National and State democratic tickets. Returns from the congressional districts also indicate the election of a solid democratic delegation by safe majorities."

Wyoming's Increase.

Washington, November 6.—The population of the State of Wyoming, as announced by the census bureau today, is 22,581, as compared with 22,705 in 1890. This is an increase of 21,836, or 52.4 per cent.

Democrat Killed.

Jeneseboro, Ill., November 6.—As a result of a quarrel over politics John Kirby, democrat, was shot and killed by Jack Thornton, republican, at Lock Creek. Both were young men of prominent families.

Jubilant in Washington.

Washington, November 6.—The jubilation here over President McKinley's reelection broke all the bounds. Never, except at inaugural times, did such crowds surge up and down Pennsylvania avenue, cheering, singing and blowing horns.

In the House.

Washington, November 6.—Chairman Richardson declined to make any statement about the political complexion of the next house, although it seemed beyond question to political observers in Washington that the Fifty-seventh house would be republican by a working majority.

Henry Steffen Found Dead.

La Grange, Texas, November 6.—The dead body of a young man named Henry Steffen was found by the roadside about two miles from a side of Rutersville last yesterday evening.

At mid-Seattle, Wash.

November 6.—At mid-Seattle, Wash., Schuyler claimed the State for McKinley by 5000 to 8000 and says he believes that while Frink, candidate for governor, will run behind McKinley, the chairman of the Democratic committee has privately conceded Washington to McKinley, but says Rogers and the other State officers will be elected.

BOARD OF BISHOPS ADJOURNED.

Selection of Bishops to Preside Over Conferences.

Trenton, N. J., November 6.—The board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church of the United States concluded their semi-annual meeting in this city tonight. The only business of public importance transacted was the selection of bishops to preside at the different conferences throughout the United States during the next six months. The assignments are as follows:

Alabama conference, Boaz, December 6; Bishop Fitzgerald; Atlanta conference, Atlanta, December 6; Bishop Fitzgerald; Arizona conference, Phoenix, December 6; Bishop Fitzgerald; California conference, San Francisco, December 6; Bishop Fitzgerald; Central Alabama conference, Mobile, Ala., November 29; Bishop Fitzgerald; Georgia conference, Tallahassee, Ga., December 20; Bishop Fitzgerald; South Carolina conference, Charleston, December 4; Bishop Fitzgerald; South German conference, Waco, November 29; Bishop Fitzgerald; Texas conference, Marshall, Texas, December 13; Bishop Fitzgerald; Arkansas conference, Texarkana, January 21; Bishop Fitzgerald; Florida conference, Tampa, Fla., January 21; Bishop Fitzgerald; Gulf Division conference, Jacksonville, Fla., January 17; Bishop Fitzgerald; Little Rock conference, Little Rock, Ark., February 6; Bishop Fitzgerald; Missouri conference, St. Louis, January 23; Bishop Fitzgerald; Louisiana conference, Shreveport, February 23; Bishop Fitzgerald; St. John's River conference, St. Augustine, Fla., February 24; Bishop Fitzgerald; Upper Mississippi conference, Aberdeen, Miss., January 17; Bishop Fitzgerald.

Very Ancient Things that We Regard as Rather Modern.

Even such seemingly indubitable innovations as wireless telegraphy and the biograph, for instance, have been shown to have had their counterparts in the dawn of the world's history.

Canon are known to have been used a thousand years before Christ. A 500-year-old magazine rifle has recently been unearthed at Nuremberg.

Not is it only comparatively important inventions like the foregoing that can be traced back to the earth's infancy. In the arid volcanic caverns at the British museum any reader of these lines can gaze upon tables' feeding bottles of sun-baked clay which were antique when Joseph went into Egypt.

It has been generally supposed that the system of using rattled letters for the education of the blind was a European invention. No such thing. Books printed in this species of type have been in use in Persia from time immemorial.

The invention of gunpowder is usually ascribed to one Michael Schwarz, a German monk, about 1235. As a matter of fact, both the Chinese and the Hindus possessed it centuries before.

The telescope, so far from being, as is generally supposed, the outcome of the famous experiment of Galileo, was known at least 300 years before his time, while the microscope was known to the Chinese ages before Galileo.

Rubber stamps were used by the Chinese a thousand years before Christ, and about the time Rome was founded the same in-

CANTON ENTHUSIASTIC.

President Made a Brief Address to the Citizens.

Executive Mansion, Canton, Ohio, November 6.—At midnight Canton was in a frenzy of enthusiasm which knew no bounds. The crowds which had been burning red fire downtown marched en masse to the McKinley residence with bands playing, rockets sending lurid streaks across the midnight sky and tumultuous cheers mingled with the din of horns and steam whistles.

The crowd clamored for the president and he appeared, waving his acknowledgments of the deafening cheers. The president said: "Fellow Citizens: I thank you for the very great compliment for this call on this incident night and at this late hour. (Cries of 'You're welcome.') Of the many gratifying reports from every part of the country, none have given me more genuine and sincere gratitude than those from my own city and my own county of Stark. And I appear now, only to do as I have done on so many former occasions, to thank you once more for the warm and hearty endorsement which you have today given my public acts."

What Roosevelt Said.

New York, November 6.—Governor Roosevelt said of the republican victory: "Isn't that fine? It shows that the American people are. It shows that they want the good times to continue and are in favor of honest money and for the flag."

Crocker to Bryan.

New York, November 6.—The following telegram was sent tonight: "W. J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.: As you no doubt already know the State has gone against us, but whereas this county in 1896 gave McKinley 23,000 majority, it gives you today 23,000, a gain of 56,000. We are defeated, but not disgraced." "Richard Crocker."

Ovation for McKinley.

Executive Mansion, Canton, Ohio, November 6.—President McKinley received a tremendous ovation from his townsmen at 12:30, and addressed them briefly from his porch.

HERBINE sweetens the breath.

Montgomery, Ala., November 6.—The last reports from the bedside of Governor-elect Sanford, at Opelika, say the condition of the patient is somewhat improved, but is still critical.
